Pvt. Paul H. Collins Died In Drive On Rome

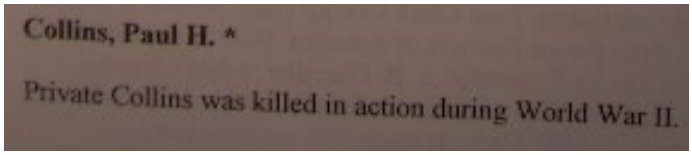

Pvt. Paul Harold Collins, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Collins of the Grimes Mill pike in Clark county, was killed in action May 23 near Rome, according to word received by his parents from the War Department.

Young Collins was graduated from Clark county high school at Winchester in 1943. He entered service at the time of his graduation and went overseas last November in time to participate in fierce fighting on the Anzio beachhead.

The last letter received from the youth by his parents was dated May 23, the date of his death. In it, Private Collins said that he and other American troops were advancing steadily on Rome.

Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frank Lane and Mrs. W. J. Wheeler, both of Lexington Rural Route 5; three brothers, Ralph, Boyd and C. B. Collins, all of Clark county, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Halfhill, Jessamine county.
