Clark Soldier Killed

WINCHESTER, Ky., Feb. 28 (Special)—Pfc. Noble Edward Fraley, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fraley, 48 Winn avenue, was killed in action in Germany Feb. 8, according to a War Department message.

A former Clark County high school student, Private Fraley entered the service June 3, 1943, and went to Europe in the invasion forces a year later.

The young soldier, whose father served in Europe with the A.E.F. in World War I, was a member of Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army. He served in France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

Other survivors include three brothers, Sgt. Bernard C. Fraley, in the European theater; William Curtis Fraley and Andrew J. Fraley, and a sister, Mary Ann Fraley, all at home.

In a message last week, Private Fraley had been reported missing in action.
