Marion Todd, Clark Soldier, Killed In Korea

WINCHESTER, Ky., Feb. 21 (I.NS)—Sgt. Marion Hisle Todd, 29, son of Mrs. Joe T. Carter of Lexington and Everett Todd of Winchester, was killed in action Feb. 6, near Seoul, Korea, according to an announcement received here from the Department of Defense.

Sgt. Todd was a veteran of World War II, having enlisted in February, 1941. He spent 26 months in Panama and was later sent to Europe where he fought with both the First and Fifth armies. He was discharged in June, 1945, and worked for the Standard Oil Company for several months.

He re-enlisted in January, 1948, and was sent to San Francisco and later to Japan in December, 1949. In July, 1950, he was sent to Korea where he won several medals for bravery and service beyond the line of duty, including the Bronze Star. He was a member of the Baptist church at Simpsonville, where he formerly resided.

Besides his parents, survivors include a brother, Eugene Todd, Norwood, Ohio, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lou Hisle, Winchester.
