Clark Youth Reported Dead In Air Action

WINCHESTER, Ky., Aug. 8 (Special)—S/Sgt. Clarence T. Williams, 24, waist-gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress, was killed in action over France on April 28, according to a War Department message to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard B. Williams, 21 Cook avenue.

Sgt. Williams was listed as missing in action in a War Department communication to his family here May 15, and no further information was received concerning the gunner until the message of his death was received.

He enlisted in the armed forces on Dec. 8, 1941, the first Clark county man to volunteer for duty after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, a member of his family stated. He received his basic training at Keesler Field, Miss.; later was sent to March Field and Muroc, Calif., for further training, and on Aug. 24, 1943, received his wings as a gunner at an Army air base in England. He attended Winchester high school prior to entering the service.

In addition to his parents, Sergeant Williams is survived by a brother, Cpl. Paul E. Williams, now in the South Pacific; a sister, Miss Lucille Williams; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Allie Taylor; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. John Williams, and an aunt, Mrs. Edd Hill, all of Winchester.
