Winchester Cadet Killed In Air Crash

Charles D. Young Killed At Sumter

SUMTER, S. C., July 15 (AP)—Clyde H. Wilson, 21, of Hayesville, N. C., and Charles B. Young, 24, of Winchester, Ky., aviation cadets at Shaw Field near here, were killed in a crash of their training plane at the field today. The plane burned.

The two young men were accepted as aviation cadets on the same day, Jan. 9. Wilson entered the service at Maxwell Field, Alabama, and Young at Fort Thomas.

Wilson was the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson. Young was the son of Mrs. Lula B. Young.

WINCHESTER, Ky., July 15 (Special)—Charles Byrd Young was the son of Mrs. Lula B. Young, a school teacher at Victory Heights County consolidated school. Mrs. Young is visiting with her family in Anderson, Ind. So far as known, she had not been informed of her son's death. Charles was born in Montgomery county and attended public schools there. He graduated from Winchester high school and was also a graduate of a college in Indiana. An older brother, Robert Bruce Young Jr., is in Michigan doing post-graduate work. His grandparents, the Reverend and Mrs. George M. Byrd, are living in retirement in Winchester. His father died about 20 years ago. A cousin, Chester Rose, was a seaman aboard a battleship at Pearl Harbor, and was killed. Chester was one of the first casualties of the war from Clark county.

Here is THE great picture born of this war! You will fondly remember brave, young Mrs. Miniver forever! Love in wartime is a mighty theme—this picture does it full justice!
